The Inland Press.
1897.

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1897, by GLEN V. MILLS, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

With this edition is issued the fifth volume of this publication under the present management.

"The Twin Cities" Directory for 1897 is all that the exercise of care, the expenditure of money and the advantage of experience and knowledge of the two cities can make.

In each succeeding publication is inserted not only all the improvements known to the trade, but also additions suggested by the patrons and residents of the territory covered.

The Publisher wishes again to call the attention of the public to the directory library on file in his office for the free consultation of patrons; an advantage possesed only by citizens of Detroit and Grand Rapids in this state; and further to announce that valuable additions will be made as fast as the patronage will justify.

The Publisher would respectfully point out to the officials, business men and citizens of Ann Arbor the great necessity of renumbering the houses in the city upon the Philadelphia plan, or more commonly called the hundred plan. In street numbering, only, is Ann Arbor behind her sister cities in Michigan. Considering that many streets in our City are in a worse condition than they would be if not numbered at all, and the small extra expense of numbering on a permanent plan, this subject should be given immediate attention.

The work should be done during the summer vacation, a time when the change would not be felt by the people, and between the sessions of the University.

The sixth volume will be published in due course of time.

To the patrons for their liberal patronage and to the citizens for their assistance in giving the information, the publisher expresses his sincere thanks.

GLEN V. MILLS,
Publisher.
